

re:garding Him Women's Conference 2018

Aging Beautifully | Adrienne Miklovic

“They still bear fruit in old age;
They are ever full of sap and green”
-Psalm 92:14

1. Aging Beautifully Spiritually

- a. Our culture's view: geezers and Harley Davidsons
- b. God's view
 - i. The dog path and habitual responses
 - ii. As you age, you become an _____ of who you are now.
 - iii. Bear fruit and be green

2. Aging Beautifully Physically

- a. Understand the big “M”
- b. Don't be a crazy woman
- c. Where are you going?
- d. Old lady hands and true beauty

Application:

What habitual responses must you change?

How will you commit to changing them?

How are you bearing fruit for Christ?

How are the marks of age on your body a testimony to God's mercy to you?

For Further Reading:

Titus 2:3-6

True Beauty by Carolyn Mahaney

Rethinking Retirement: Finishing Life for the Glory of Christ by John Piper

“God kisses away the fear of aging with His promises.” –Charles Spurgeon